THEME

We have chosen "Space" for our theme in this year's 1964 Medinian. We hope you like it.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this 1964 annual to Mr. Howard Dailey. He has been a teacher, coach, and a friend to Medina High School teachers and students for eleven years.

Just this last year he became the assistant to the superintendent. The Medinian Staff would like to wish him the best of luck in his new position.

CLASS HISTORY

Through the past three years the 1964 senior class has been very active. Their big sophomore project was the selection of class rings.

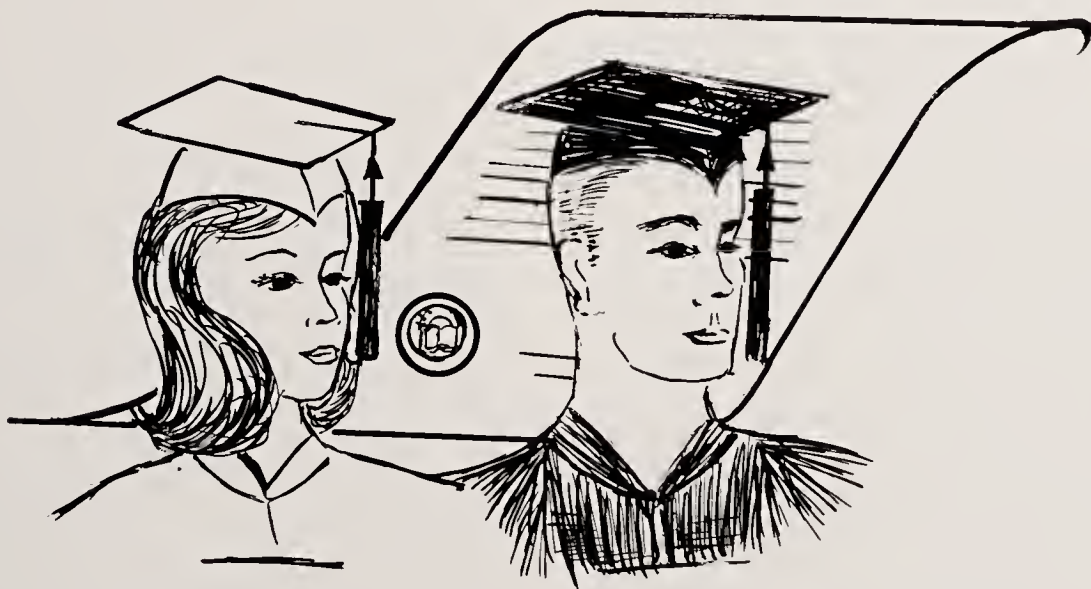

As juniors, the class was in charge of the concession stand. The money which they earned from the concession stand and from selling mums at Homecoming went toward the prom. The junior-senior prom which was entitled "Venus" was a big success. It was the first event to be held at the newly opened Wedgewood Country Club.

Now that they are in their last year, the seniors are extremely busy. There are many things which must be done before they receive their diplomas in June. The activities which fill their lives are the measuring for caps and gowns and the ordering of graduation announcements.

So that their class of 1964 will always be remembered, the seniors donated a scoreboard for the gym in their names.

Jeff Ziegler must be commended for his excellent leadership as Class President all through the class' high school days.

The Medinian staff congratulates the seniors and wishes them the best of luck in the future.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-four, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby prepare and publish at Medina Senior High School, this, our last will and testament:

- I, Jayce Abeling, will all the talent I have with the bassoon to Bab Tallafield. He needs it!
- I, Lin Akers, will all the fun I've had in my senior year to all future seniors.
- I, Jahn Austin, will to Bab Johnson and Ed Suddleston one dozen of rotten eggs for next year's away football games.
- I, Barb Batchelder, will to Karen Siedel my ability to arrive late for 8th period study hall three times a week—late.
- I, Chuck Bates, will to my brother, Bab, the title of "South End Lad" which I acquired during baseball season.
- I, Linda Belak, will to Larry my ability to tap dance and to read shorthand.
- I, Bab Berry, will my egg throwing ability to any junior with the guts to do it.
- I, Linda Bilinavich, will to Mary Grave happiness and fond memories of my senior year in the hopes that she has many to remember, too.
- I, Paula Blakeslee, will to my little brother, Tam, all the fun I've had at M.H.S.
- I, Lyn Bahm, will to Cathy Schubert and Tami Cracker my smelly, old gym socks and also all the lousy homework I had my senior year with the hope that theirs will get done.
- I, Bannie Baltan, will to any future senior girl all the physical coordination that I seem to lack.
- I, Cathy Baugher, will to anyone who wants it my seat in Mr. Brewer's calculus class.
- I, Diane Bowman, will to Danna Kaehler all my used clarinet reeds and wish her the best of luck in trying to use them because she'll need it.
- I, Bruce Buckingham, will to Bonners Dresser the "Black Bomb" to drive to school everyday in her senior year.
- I, Elaine Bursby, will Mr. Banks to Linda McClung because she thinks he's nice.
- I, Darrel Canfield, will all my good times at M.H.S. to my brother Bruce.
- I, Bill Chandler, will all my good times at M.H.S. to anyone who needs them.
- I, Mary Chidsey, will to Sue Kraus my locker in A-Wing so she doesn't have to use hers in D-Wing.
- I, Carole Christy, will to any junior girl my two left feet for tap dancing and to my brother Jahn, all my books in hopes that he uses them better than I did.
- I, Karen Churgavich, will to my little brother, Roger, my tired spats which have seen many miles, in hopes that he won't trip over the straps as I did.
- I, Nancy Clark, will to my brother, Randy, all my books and teachers and their magic spell.
- I, Linda Cann, will my straight hair to any junior girl who can tolerate Mr. Cawden's caustic comments.
- I, Jim Caak, will my ability to lead a cheer to the cheerleaders if they want it.
- I, Linda Caudret, will to any underclassman my ability to be quiet in Mr. Ishman's first period study hall.
- I, Bab Cavey, will my ability as a ventriloquist to anyone who will be in Mr. Phillips' study hall next year.
- I, Phyllis Daniels, will my locker number 1218 to anyone who can get it open with the combination they give you in the office.
- I, Debby Dannley, will to anyone with the strength to carry it around—my clarinet and its case.
- I, Jahn Dannley, will my personal rule book, M.R.B.F.F.F., to Jan Petersen in hopes that he will use and respect it with the honor it deserves.
- I, John Davis, will to Nancy Miller six Heath bars a day for the rest of her life.
- I, Jayce Davis, will to any underclassman my ability to keep quiet in Mr. Brewer's study hall.
- I, Nancy Davis, will to my sister, Judy, my ability to stay on the merit roll and to keep out of trouble which is hard to do in this school!
- I, Bab Day, will to Rick Smith my bass horn and my ability to play it.
- I, Phyllis DeMuth, will to Bab Reed a whole box of paper clips to stick in the outlets in the biology lab.
- I, Peggy Donnelly, will my seat in 7th period study hall to anyone who can stand another year of it.
- I, Sandy Dreibelbis, will to my sister, Pat, the ability to stay out of trouble. She'll need it!
- I, Bill Dreibelbis, will the ability to get my ear sliced in football practice to anyone who can figure out how I did it.
- I, Sue Dresser, will my ability to get kicked out of band to Karen Hattery and Jan Past.
- I, Mark Druckenbrad, will to Larry Morrell my safe driving record at M.H.S.
- I, Lea Dunbar, will to Phebe Aylard all of Jim Cook's money which she already has.
- I, Judy DuPlaga, will to Jackie Gowe my seat on the backledge in the hopes that she will retain it always.
- I, Judy Eastan, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Schafer to anyone who is willing to accept it.
- I, Diana Eddy, will my seat in Mr. Dague's senior English class to any deserving junior who wants his secrets revealed in a diary kept for class.
- I, Jahn Eggleston, will my ability to get kicked out of pool halls to Dick Cramwell.
- I, Ned Ellsworth, will to anyone who wants it—my ability with girls.
- I, Carol Emerson, will nothing. I have nothing to leave.
- I, Louise Faber, will my crush on Mr. Ciampichini to any upcoming senior girl who is capable of handling it.
- I, Shirley Fawls, will my locker to anyone who can get three people in it for three consecutive years without getting in trouble.
- I, Barb Fry, will my old rusty Chrysler with one bald tire, no reverse, and brakes that work when they want to, to anyone who's brave enough to drive it.
- I, Sue Fulton, will to any junior girl the opportunity to have some of the same memories in her senior year as I have had in mine.
- I, Joanne Gager, will to Linda (Rabbit) Hoen a carrot in hopes that she enjoys it.
- I, Carol Gilliland, will to Nancy all the fun I've had during my senior year.
- I, Rick Garfida, will to Cindy the will power to reduce.
- I, Fred Graff, will to Mike Simmons, if he lasts the next two years on the football team, my ability to withstand my brother on Senior Day. He'll need it.
- I, Bill Hanes, will my band spats and button hook to Larry Vereb.
- I, Della Hartzler, will to Murriel Staple all my hours and work of make-up in natehand.
- I, Ed Herman, will to my sister my ability not to study.
- I, Judy Hetrick, will to Lauesha Brown my 36-inch hips. She is in desperate need of them.
- I, Connie Hitt, will to any future senior who takes secretarial practice, my head which she'll find in the waste basket and to Sue Spacek all the fun I've had at M.H.S. in hopes that she will have as much as I have.
- I, Howard Hobson, will my ability to wear motorcycle t-shirts in gym class to Mike Singler who can never get by with it.
- I, Skeeter Halstan, will my good looks, my winning smile, my speed, endurance, and common sense to my brothers in hopes that they use them.
- I, Karen Hood, will to anyone who thinks he is able, the ability to pull into Hood's Service Station and get a tank of gas and not pay for it.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

- I, Steve Horkey, will my ability to sing bass to Tate and Virg Salmons. They need it!
- I, Kathy Josh, will the honor of reading Mr. Banks' books to anyone wishing to be known as a "Brownie."
- I, Connie Kasper, will to Tami Crocker and Lynn Diemer my fictitious 64 Ford Thunderbird. Have Fun!
- I, Ron Kaszian, will my dirty socks and my ability to bum a ride home from wrestling to Rick Harper.
- I, Tess Kempf, will to Bernie Gilliam my good manners, my ability to get along with her teachers and another summer of working in an ice cream stand.
- I, Lee Ann Kern, will to Linda Werner my seat in German II and the best of luck. She'll need it!
- I, Sharon Kincaid, will all of the good discussions we had in Mr. Ciampichini's class in spite of English II.
- I, Tom Kinder, will to all deserving people everything they desire.
- I, Richard King, will to Steve my knack of being able to wreck a car more times than anyone else.
- I, Larry Kirk, will my ability to get out of study hall to anyone who also wants my key to the whirlpool.
- I, Donna Koch, will to Kim Lincoln and Shirley Kiefer two pairs of boxing gloves to protect their fingers as they battle for first chair in band and I will the loser a first aid kit.
- I, Jeff Largent, will a seat in Mrs. Neptune's journalism class to any deserving soph. boy who has ambition, drive, and desire.
- I, Terry Lenaburg, will all my trophies in the trophy case to the school.
- I, Jim Leonhart, will to Chuck Lanier my parking space between the telephone pole and the guide wire in front of the school.
- I, Dianne Letterly, will to my brother, Jim, my ability to get along with teachers and stay out of trouble. He sure needs it!
- I, Diana Loehr, will to anyone scatterbrained enough to do it, my job as circulation manager of the annual and to Chris Palmer my spot at the mirror before school.
- I, Larry Loveman, will to Ed Suddleson, my out-going personality, he could use it; and to anyone who wants it, my job as photographer.
- I, Jeanne Loyer, will my ability not to hit the band to anyone lucky enough to pull the homecoming float next year.
- I, Lupi Martinez, will all the fun I had my soph. and junior year to my brother. My senior year doesn't count!
- I, Sterling Medley, will my basketball shoes to Gary Scott and hope he will follow in my footsteps.
- I, Marsh Mesick, will to Nancy Miller my Y-Teen clothes—freezing technique.
- I, Randy Moore, will to "Creep" my ability to get along with Mr. Edwards.
- I, Charlie Morton, will nothing as I have nothing worth leaving.
- I, Linda Moxley, will my position in the motorcycle club to Pat Herman if she can top my triumph 500C.C.
- I, Jim Myers, will all I have, which is nothing, to everyone.
- I, Kay Nichols, will to Verlaine Motz, my ability to wear frozen clothes after Y-Teen slumber parties.
- I, Ken Norris, will to Tom Buchanan all the things I was deprived of during my high school days (measles, mumps, etc.).
- I, Sue Null, will to Bobby Ann Beckowitz a piece of adhesive tape in hopes that she uses it.
- I, Jim Parkhurst, will to George Oliver my ability to stay out of trouble most of the time.
- I, Eddy Paul, will a happy future year to Silvia Eckert.
- I, Sandy Rabe, will my gum chewing ability to anyone who wants to annoy Mr. Dague.
- I, Reenie Reich, will to my sister, Joyce, my civics seat hoping she will do better than I did, and to Verlaine Motz, my ability to get B's in home ec. without saying a word.
- I, Gary Rickert, will to my sister, Donna, all the fun she can have in math.
- I, Dave Riebau, will to Larry Morrell one chewed-up, knobby tire, a leaky primary case, a rusted megaphone, and one bent foot peg.
- I, Pat Roberts, will the card section to any junior girl who wants to try and yell over sixty-four girls.
- I, Sandy Roby, will to Sue White my favorite parking place and to my sister, Jane, my ability to get-up and catch the bus the same day.
- I, Pam Rogers, will to Dave Neptune the courage to speak to Mrs. Neptune in the hall.
- I, Phil Rogers, will my ability to get along with Mr. Phillips to everyone taking bookkeeping, including Pam Ramer.
- I, John Rutter, will my ability to understand civics to Lenny Eaken.
- I, Kathy Scanlan, will my ability to get good grades from Mr. Phillips to my baby brother, Chuck.
- I, Cheryl Schaefer, will to my little brother, Ron, my seat in civics hoping he can do better than I did.
- I, Fran Schelkle, will to Jane Schmidt my ability to sit in study hall and talk without being yelled at.
- I, Karyn Schubert, will my long curly hair to anyone with nerve enough to wear it.
- I, Mary Seamon, will to Homer Younker my ability to talk in eighth period study hall when Mr. Brewer says, "Quiet."
- I, Bonnie Severs, will to Sandi Cashion a vacant room at Miami U. and to any future slave working for Mr. Rios, a typewriter eraser.
- I, Diane Shanabrook, will all the trash cans I've driven over to Lynn Hugert.
- I, Nick Shanta, will nothing as I'm taking it all with me since I find no deserving soul to will it to.
- I, Bob Shurell, will my plan of suicide to Bill Izard in hopes that he'll use it.
- I, Jan Siegfried, will my ability to get along with teachers to Tom Stein and to Dave Gager.
- I, Pam Smithburger, will to Susie Sigafos, one personalized gunny sack to use in next year's G.L.C. initiation; and to Mrs. Neptune my ability to speak "erd."
- I, Russ Stevens, will to anyone my Ford, to my best girl my Triumph Cycle, to anyone unlucky enough to get them—my books, and to Bob Johnson all the good times.
- I, Kurt Survance, will nothing to no one as it wouldn't be legal.
- I, Pat Tompkins, will my ability to count time wrong in band to Holly Shaw in hopes that she can do better.
- I, Kerry Tripp, will to Mike Delac my ability to throw eggs and my ability to flirt with Jan Post, as if she needed it.
- I, Powell Ulich, will to Pam Cooper, Margrette Tench, Pat Pinkerton one full year's supply of gum that you can find under any desk.
- I, Judy Ulmer, will to Ron Lenick my worn out marching shoes in hopes that he can march in sole-less shoes.
- I, Ed Waltz, will to the A.A. and the Amangi Nacha the right to tell Mr. Brewer that 22/7 and cornpone are round.
- I, Lynn Wideman, will my great ability to "Flamenco" in Mr. Ciampicini's class to Julie "Twinkletoes" Fauri.
- I, Sharon Williams, will to my brother, Virg, my fine ability to stay out of trouble.
- I, Pam Yike, will my ability to get out of Mr. Hass' study hall to my sister, Suzie.
- I, Jeff Ziegler, will to Kurt Survance any prestige I might have with the teachers because if he's here next year, he is going to need it.
- I, Shirley Zsarney, will to my cousin, Jim Seamon, all the fun I've had at M.H.S. and my shorthand notes to anyone who can read them.

Mr. Rios says, "I'm ready, are you?"

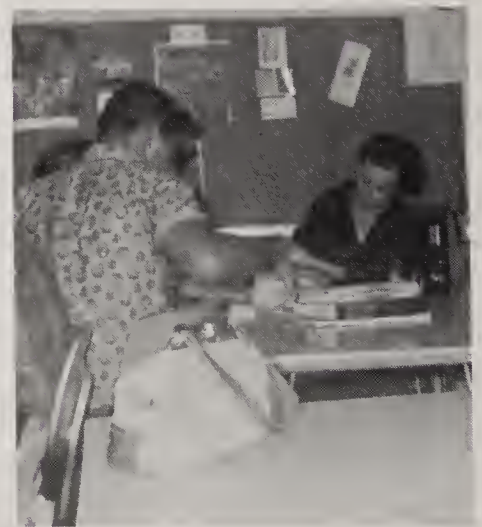

Guess who.

Did you hear the joke about the . . . ?

We believe in following the M.H.S. dress code to the last rule.

Mrs. Neptune says, "Bernie, your purse is behind you."

We've got our war paint on and we're ready to fight!

Number 34 to number 40, "Do you think these uniforms will protect us enough?"

Junior Varsity Bee-tles

V.I.C.T.O.R.Y. that's our high school battle cry.

The BEEhive

Judi Hetrick asks, "Am I late for the dance?"

Sue Fulton screams, "I can't stop crying; my garter is showing."

Beetles we're not, BEES—we are! !

Pat Herman remarks, "We don't always dress like this; sometimes we wear old clothes."

Pat says, "Well, it's a one, two, three KICK!"

FOOTBALL VARSITY TEAM

The Bees had a very successful season as far as effort is concerned. The team met with very tough competition in the form of opposing teams. Although they won only one of eight games, Medina's Bees must be congratulated on their good sportsmanship. We wish the team better luck next year.

HOMEcoming

The spirits of Medina fans were temporarily dampened as the North Olmsted Eagles beat the Bees with a score of 46-0. Only the presence of Queen Sue Fulton and her attendants, Marcia Tubbs, Debbie Dannely, Pam Smithburger, and Carol Lucas softened the blow.

The Homecoming Dance which followed was the crowning event of the evening. October four is a day to remember for Queen Sue and her attendants.

Queen Sue Fulton

"Hey mom, I did it," cries Sue Fulton.

Mr. Gotaas says to Sue Fulton, "With this, I, thee wed."

"Matching sweaters and we're not going steady," says Carol Lucas to Debbie, Marcia, and Pam.

Sue Fulton smiles but thinks, "Gee, but his foot is heavy."

Mr. Dague says, "Welcome seniors, juniors, and tenth graders."

Dream on, children.

The Christmas dance, which was sponsored by the Y-Teens, was entitled "Toyland" this year.

It was a very successful and enjoyable event.

The members spent much time on the decorations which were very original.

The Music Men

Mr. Banks to Mrs. Banks, "Wake up dear, the intermission is over."

Taking a rest

Sue jokes with Doug, "One more crack like that and I'll belt you one."

Bob whispers to Pat, "No offense, but your slip is showing."

Mr. Dague laughs, "The punch isn't spiked; it just tastes that way."

"Young Love"

Sandy and Bill say, "We're trying to smile but this stuff tastes like poison."

Mrs. Banks to Mrs. Haas, "I wonder what those husbands of ours are doing?"

STUDENT COUNCIL

Seated: B. Botchelder, Historian; L. Kirk, Treasurer; E. Waltz, President; M. Mesick, Secretary; J. Zigler, Vice-President; Mr. Loughridge, Advisor.

Standing: M. Halderson, S. Fowls, D. Dannley, S. Holden, C. Lucas, J. Baldwin, J. Silva, G. Hopp, P. Smithberger, V. Salmons, L. Moxley, D. Cromwell, C. Morton, J. Donnley, R. Kovalik, C. Hitt.

"Let's cut this meeting short, so I can go to sleep," says Tom Krejci.

The student council provides a closer cooperation with the school. It also enables a better representation of the students in all phases of our Medina Senior High School program.

The student council has sponsored many activities this year. During Christmas time they held a canned foods drive for needy people in Medina county. The club was also host at a Valentine dance. All assemblies are under the guidance of the student council.

"Just because you don't agree," pleads Dick Cromwell, "please, don't snub me!"

AUDIO CLUB

Front Row: J. Fodor, Chief Engineer; J. Donnley, President; B. Chondler, Secretary-Treasurer; E. Waltz, Vice President.
 Second Row: B. Phillips, J. Leonhort, G. Rickert, C. Kasper.
 Third Row: J. Baldwin, B. Buckingham.

Fourth Row: C. Arbogast, L. Koppelberger, F. Miller, D. Neptune, K. Siedel.
 Fifth Row: E. Smelser, A. Fink, J. Peterson, G. Robins.
 Sixth Row: L. Vereb, L. Abbott, J. Lutz, J. Webel.

Noon and after game dances are the major activities sponsored by the Audio Club. They are also in charge of teen canteens and setting up for assemblies.

Audio Club is founded for the purpose of giving electronically minded students a way to express themselves.

Ring announcer George Robins announces, "And in this corner Jon Peterson weighing 98 pounds."

CONTEMPORARY AFFAIRS ASSOCIATION

Front Row: P. Demuth, Secretary; M. Mesick, Treasurer; Mr. Banks, Advisor; C. Morton, Chancellor.

Second Row: D. Dannley, K. Churgovich, D. Koch, P. Smithberger, S. Rabe, L. Moxley, B. Batchelder, L. Jenkins, E. Waltz, J. Dannley.

Third Row: S. Kincaid, S. Sigafos, N. Miller, C. Arbogast, K.

Siedel, K. Bujnowski, J. Davis, J. Eggleston, L. Loveman, J. Austin.

Fourth Row: P. Rogers, N. Clark, L. Heintzelman, L. Brown, J. Ellis, K. Lincoln, J. Peacock, M. Marcey, S. Holden, P. Herman.

Fifth Row: J. Largent, J. Baldwin, T. Fetzer, P. Roshon, J. Fleming, S. Kiefer, B. Hunter, K. Friday.

"We at least should look busy," says Linda, Barry and Marsha.

The Contemporary Affairs Association was established for the purpose of discussing current events and staying abreast of the times.

Y-Teens was founded for the purpose of building a fellowship of women and girls, devoted to the task of realizing in their common life those ideals of personal and social living to which they are committed by their faith as Christians.

Y-Teens have three main goals:

1. To grow as a person.
 2. To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities.
 3. To grow in the knowledge and love of God.
- This year they sponsored the Christmas Dance.

"If you think your big enough we'll go outside and . . .," remarks Marcia Mesick.

"Wake-up Sandy the meeting is about to start!" exclaims Judy Easton.

"First we'll rob the National Bank and then there will be no holding us back," whispers Sue Kraus.

"Hello out in T. V. land," yells Mr. Loughridge.

"We're all on the wagon again," says Bob Cook.

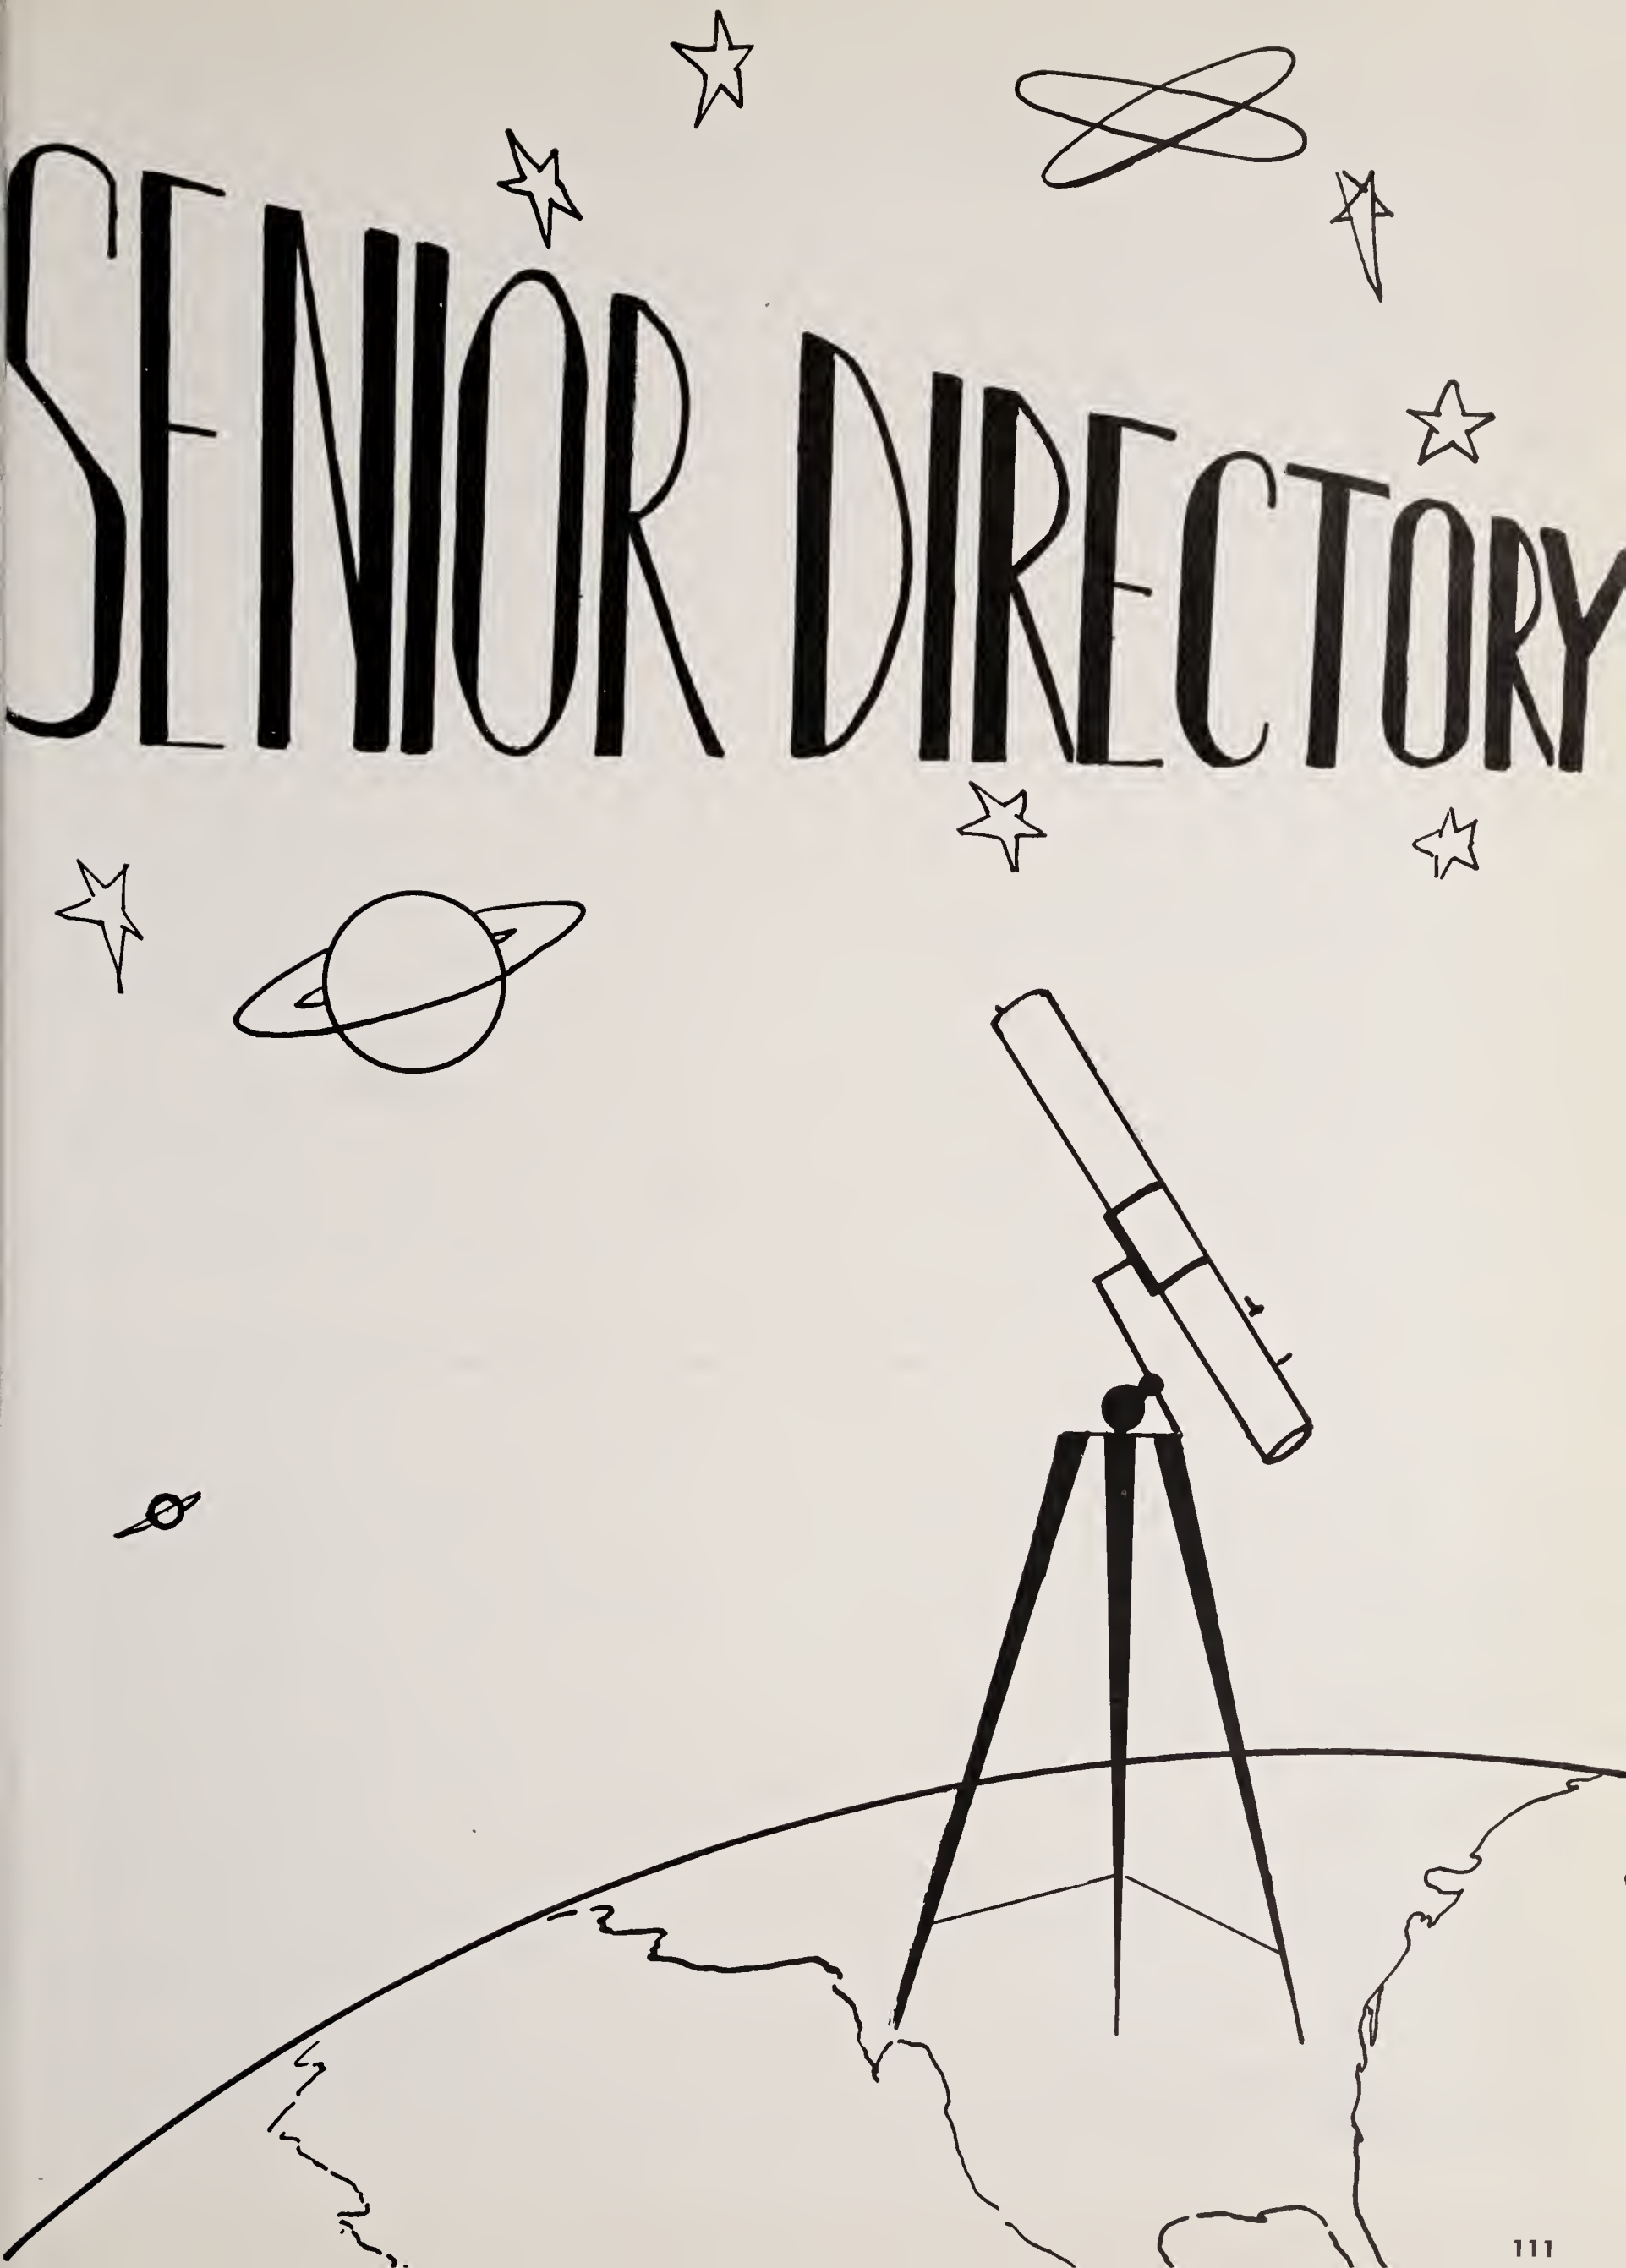

Paulette says to Fran, "We're the greatest."

"Peek-a-Boo," says Pat Roberts.

Funny looking harmonicas you have there!

Seventy-six trombones led the big parade!!!!

Toot! Toot

Mr. Moughy, I thought you were choir director!

Smile! This IS a PEP assembly?, Sue Dresser and Phyllis DeMuth.

"Those are fighting words where I come from," warns Bonnie Severs.

"I'm not copying! I'm just checking my answers with Dick's," explains Diane Campy.

"I'm so tired I could fall asleep right here," says Sue.

Mr. Edwards shouts, "This is not a talkathon.".....
